PLAINTIFFS' FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES

1 PROPOUNDING PARTY: Plaintiff

2 RESPONDING PARTY: Defendants

3 SET NO.: One

4 Pursuant to Rules 26 and 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, defendants Ancestry.com
5 Operations Inc., Ancestry.com Inc., and Ancestry.com LLC (collectively, “Ancestry”), by and through 6 their attorneys, hereby serve their responses and objections to plaintiffs’ First Set of Interrogatories 7 (the “Interrogatories”).
8

9 PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

10 Ancestry has not yet completed its investigation of the facts relating to this action, reviewed all 11 documents relating to this action, interviewed all witnesses in this action, or completed its preparation 12 for trial. Consequently, without undertaking an obligation to do so, Ancestry reserves the right to 13 amend and/or supplement its responses if additional facts or documents are discovered, disclosed, or 14 produced. Ancestry’s responses in no way preclude Ancestry from later relying on facts discovered 15 pursuant to further investigation or discovery or on subsequently discovered or generated information.
16

17 Ancestry’s response to any of the Interrogatories shall not be construed as a waiver of any of 18 its objections, including, without limitation, (a) objections to the use and admissibility of these 19 responses and their subject matter on any ground in any proceeding in this action; (b) objections on 20 any ground at any time to any request for production of documents or things, answers to 21 interrogatories, admissions, or any other discovery in this action relating to the subject matter of the 22 Interrogatories; and (c) objections or other questions as to the competency, relevance, materiality, 23 privilege, or admissibility as evidence in any subsequent proceeding or trial in this or any other action 24 for any purpose whatsoever of any information, document or thing that might be produced in the 25 future.
26
27
28

1 Ancestry reserves the right to: (a) make any use of or introduce other information, documents, 2 and things in this action that it might discover or upon which it might come to rely at the time of trial 3 including, but not limited to, any documents obtained in discovery herein; and (b) revise, correct, 4 supplement, or clarify any of its written responses at any time pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil 5 Procedure 26(e).
6

7 GENERAL OBJECTIONS

8 Ancestry makes the following general objections to plaintiff's Interrogatories, reserving the 9 right to add to or amend the objections or responses. The following general objections apply to each 10 of the Interrogatories and are incorporated by reference into each of the specific objections and 11 responses as if fully set forth therein. A specific response might repeat a general objection for 12 emphasis or some other reason. Not including a general objection in any specific response shall not 13 constitute a waiver of any general objection to that Interrogatory.
14

15 1. Ancestry objects to the Interrogatories to the extent they exceed the requirements of the 16 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the local rules of the District of Nevada, or any discovery rules 17 governing this case.

18 2. Ancestry objects to the Interrogatories to the extent they seek information that, if 19 disclosed, would violate third-party privacy rights or third-party confidentiality rights (contractual, 20 common law, statutory, or otherwise) or any rights that prohibit Ancestry from disclosing third-party 21 information without consent.

22 3. Ancestry objects to the Interrogatories to the extent they purport to require Ancestry to 23 disclose information that is commercially sensitive, confidential, proprietary and/or reflective of trade
24 secrets, including, but not limited to, Ancestry's commercially sensitive, confidential and proprietary 25 information and information that is prohibited from disclosure by contract, agreement, understanding, 26 custom, trade usage, statute, regulation, privacy law, or any other provision of law. That information 27 will not be disclosed except pursuant to and in reliance upon a suitable protective order.
28

1 4. Ancestry objects to the Interrogatories to the extent they are vague, ambiguous, 2 overbroad, unduly burdensome, oppressive, incomprehensible, redundant, harassing, improperly 3 duplicative or cumulative of other discovery, particularly insofar as they contain the terms “any” and 4 “all.”

5 5. Ancestry objects to the Interrogatories to the extent they seek information that is as 6 accessible to plaintiff as it is to Ancestry on the grounds that it is unreasonably burdensome to compel 7 Ancestry to obtain such information for plaintiff.

8 6. Ancestry objects to the Interrogatories to the extent the information sought therein is 9 not reasonably limited in geographic or temporal scope or appropriately limited to the claims in this 10 case.

11 7. Ancestry submits these responses on behalf of itself and does not speak for other 12 entities or persons. Nor does Ancestry purport to have possession, custody, or control of information 13 from other entities or persons.

14 8. Ancestry objects to the Interrogatories to the extent they call for information protected 15 from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the work-product doctrine, the common interest 16 privilege, or any other applicable privilege or protection. That information will not be disclosed. Any 17 future inadvertent disclosure of privileged information by Ancestry shall not constitute a waiver of 18 any applicable privilege nor shall the production of any information be construed as a waiver of any 19 objection to the admissibility of such response.

20 9. Ancestry objects to the Interrogatories to the extent they impermissibly and 21 prematurely call for expert opinions or testimony, at odds with the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P.
22 26(a)(2)(D). Ancestry will make its expert disclosures in compliance with the timeframe provided by 23 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

24 10. Ancestry objects to the Interrogatories to the extent they impermissibly call for 25 production at odds with the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(3).

26 11. Ancestry objects to the Interrogatories to the extent they seek information that is not 27 relevant to any claims or defenses in this litigation nor proportional to the needs of the case.

1 12. No objection made herein, or lack thereof, shall be deemed an admission by Ancestry
2 as to the existence or non-existence of any information responsive to an Interrogatory.

3 13. Ancestry objects to the Interrogatories to the extent they are impermissibly compound 4 and/or have various subparts.

5 14. Ancestry objects to the Instructions as unduly burdensome because they attempt to 6 increase the obligations on Ancestry beyond what is required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
7 Ancestry will not take on obligations beyond what is required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure
8 and the local rules of the District of Nevada.

9 15. Ancestry objects to Instruction Number 6 to the extent it seeks “information and 10 Documents” (emphasis added) as unduly burdensome because it attempts to increase the obligations 11 on Ancestry beyond what is required by applicable rules, including the Federal Rules of Civil 12 Procedure.

13 16. Ancestry objects to Instruction Number 7 as unduly burdensome because it attempts to 14 increase the obligations on Ancestry beyond what is required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
15 Ancestry will not take on obligations beyond what is required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 16 the local rules of the District of Nevada, and the agreed ESI protocol.

17 17. Ancestry objects to the definition of the term “Agreement” and any interrogatories 18 incorporating that term because it imposes obligations greater than those imposed by the Federal 19 Rules of Civil Procedure and seeks information that is “unwritten” or not otherwise contained in 20 documents. Ancestry will not undertake the obligation to create any documents for purposes of 21 production. The definition also impermissibly combines multiple separate subparts. The definition 22 further improperly calls for Ancestry to produce information that is protected by attorney-client 23 privilege and attorney work product privilege. Ancestry therefore defines “Agreement” to include 24 only non-privileged, existing documents.

25 18. Ancestry objects to the definition of the terms “Ancestry,” “you,” and “your” and any 26 interrogatories incorporating those terms because they impose obligations greater than those imposed 27 by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and seek information in the possession, custody, or control of 28

1 individuals, organizations, or entities other than Ancestry. Ancestry further objects to the definitions 2 to the extent they purport to impute knowledge of unspecified or unknown parties or persons to 3 Ancestry. The definitions further improperly call for Ancestry to produce information that is 4 protected by attorney-client privilege and attorney work product privilege. In addition, the definitions 5 call for information outside of Ancestry's possession, custody or control. The definitions further 6 impermissibly combine multiple separate subparts. Ancestry therefore defines those terms to include 7 only Ancestry and its current officers, directors, and employees.

8 19. Ancestry objects to the definition of the term "Class" and any interrogatories 9 incorporating that term because it is vague, ambiguous, unduly burdensome, and unascertainable in 10 that it includes "any person appearing in the Yearbook Database who is not a current subscriber to 11 Ancestry.com." Ancestry cannot determine (1) individuals in the Yearbook Database and (2) who 12 appearing in the Yearbook Database is or is not a current Ancestry.com subscriber. In addition, this 13 definition fails to account for others who are not current paying subscribers but also agreed to 14 Ancestry's terms and conditions. The information in the Yearbook Database is insufficient to 15 determine whether any individual is an Ancestry subscriber or has otherwise agreed to Ancestry's 16 terms and conditions.

17 20. Ancestry objects to the definition of the term "Classmates" and any interrogatories 18 incorporating that term as vague, ambiguous, unduly burdensome, and unascertainable in that it 19 includes "all past and present officers, directors, representatives, agents, and employees of 20 PeopleConnect, Inc.; and all past and present parents, subsidiaries, divisions, or controlling 21 shareholders of PeopleConnect, Inc." Ancestry also objects to that definition because it seeks to 22 impose obligations greater than those imposed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and seeks 23 information in the possession, custody, or control of individuals, organizations, or entities other than 24 Ancestry. Ancestry further objects to the definition to the extent that it purports to impute knowledge 25 of unspecified or unknown parties or persons to Ancestry. In addition, the definition impermissibly 26 combines multiple separate subparts.

1 21. Ancestry objects to the definition of the term “Documents” and each request 2 incorporating that term as it seeks to impose obligations greater than those imposed by the Federal 3 Rules of Civil Procedure. It is also vague, ambiguous, and unduly burdensome in that it seeks 4 information not relevant to any of the parties’ claims or defenses. It also seeks information that is 5 commercially sensitive, confidential, proprietary and/or reflective of trade secrets, including, but not 6 limited to, Ancestry’s commercially sensitive, confidential and proprietary information and 7 information that is prohibited from disclosure by contract, agreement, understanding, custom, trade 8 usage, statute, regulation, privacy law, or any other provision of law. This definition further seeks 9 information that is as accessible to plaintiff, including to the extent that information is publicly 10 available, such as social media communications. In addition, that definition is vague and unduly 11 burdensome in that it requires searches of information, including electronically stored information, 12 that is not reasonably accessible in light of the burdens or costs required to locate, restore, review and 13 provide whatever responsive information might be found, in particular the request for text messages, 14 microfilm, telephone logs, computer code, and unspecified “instructions and materials necessary to 15 use or interpret such information.” Therefore, Ancestry will interpret the term document consistent 16 with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

17 22. Ancestry objects to the definition of “On-Site Messages” and any Interrogatories 18 incorporating that term as it is unduly burdensome, overly broad, and vague in that it includes the 19 entirety of the website www.ancestry.com and other, unspecified websites. This definition further 20 seeks information that is neither relevant nor proportional to any of the claims or defenses in this 21 litigation. In addition, this definition seeks information or documents that are as accessible to plaintiffs 22 as it is to Ancestry. Ancestry will interpret “on-site messages” to mean the various landing pages and 23 previews that can be accessed after searching for a yearbook record.

24 23. Ancestry objects to the definition of “Marketing Email” as unduly burdensome, overly 25 broad, and vague in that it is not limited to the claims or defenses in this litigation. Ancestry does not 26 use records from its Yearbook Database in any “marketing emails,” and thus interprets this definition 27
28

1 to mean “hint” emails, which might contain records from the Yearbook Database related to a person a 2 user inserted in their online family tree.

3 24. Ancestry objects to the definition of “Yearbook Database,” “Yearbook Names” and 4 “Yearbook Photographs” and any interrogatories incorporating those terms as unduly burdensome to 5 the extent they are not limited to the Nevada yearbook information that is searchable through 6 www.ancestry.com. Ancestry therefore defines “Yearbook Database” as being limited to the Nevada 7 yearbook information that is searchable through www.ancestry.com and incorporates this definition
8 into the definition of “Yearbook Names” and “Yearbook Photograph.”

9 25. Ancestry objects to the Interrogatories in that they are not limited to a relevant 10 temporal scope, including the applicable statute of limitations for plaintiff’s claims.

11 26. Ancestry objects to the Interrogatories because they seek information that is equally or 12 more available to, or already in the possession, custody or control of plaintiff.

13 27. Any objection by Ancestry does not constitute a representation or admission that such 14 information does in fact exist or is known.

15 SPECIFIC OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES

16 INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

17 Identify and describe the process by which Ancestry obtains Yearbook Photographs and 18 Yearbook Names in the Yearbook Database.

19 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

20 Ancestry incorporates its general objections and in addition objects to this Interrogatory on the 21 grounds that it: (i) is overly broad and unduly burdensome as it seeks information that is neither 22 relevant to the claims or defenses of any party nor proportional to the needs of the case and lacks any 23 appropriate temporal or geographic limitations; (ii) seeks information that is commercially sensitive,
24 confidential, proprietary and/or reflective of trade secrets, including, but not limited to, Ancestry’s 25 commercially sensitive, confidential and proprietary information and information that is prohibited 26 from disclosure by contract, agreement, understanding, custom, trade usage, statute, regulation, 27 privacy law and/or any other provision of law; (iii) seeks information that is duplicative of other 28

1 discovery, namely Interrogatory 6 and Request for Production 1; (iv) seeks information that, if 2 disclosed, would violate third-party privacy rights or third-party confidentiality rights (contractual,
3 common law, statutory, or otherwise) or any rights that prohibit Ancestry from disclosing third-party 4 information without consent; and (v) is premature given that Ancestry has not yet completed its 5 investigation.

6 Subject to and without waiving the foregoing general and specific objections and subject to the 7 protective order in this case, Ancestry responds as follows: The two main methods by which Ancestry
8 receives yearbooks within the Yearbook Database are through donations and third party licensing 9 agreements. Specifically, Ancestry receives yearbook donations from individuals who enter into a 10 donation agreement with Ancestry and verify that the copyright holder grants permission to Ancestry 11 to put the yearbooks online. Ancestry also enters into licensing agreements with third parties who 12 supply Ancestry with licenses to store, display, and provide access to yearbook records and

14 INTERROGATORY NO. 2:

15 Identify and describe the purpose for which Ancestry displays On-Site Messages and sends 16 Marketing Emails that incorporate Yearbook Photographs and/or Yearbook Names.

17 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 2:

18 Ancestry incorporates its general objections and in addition objects to this Interrogatory on the 19 grounds that it: (i) seeks information protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the 20 work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege, or other applicable protection; (ii) is overly 21 broad and unduly burdensome, including to the extent it seeks information without any appropriate 22 temporal limitations; (iii) seeks information that is neither relevant to the claims or defenses of any 23 party nor proportional to the needs of the case; (iv) is overbroad, unduly burdensome, and vague with 24 respect to what constitutes "on-site messages" including in its attempt to stretch the well-known 25 meaning of "message" to cover anything that might appear on a website; Ancestry will interpret "on-26 site messages" to mean the various landing pages and previews that can be accessed after searching 27 for a yearbook record; (v) is overbroad, unduly burdensome, and vague with respect to what 28

1 constitutes a “marketing email”; Ancestry does not use records from its Yearbook Database in any 2 “marketing emails,” and thus interprets this to mean “hint” emails, which do sometimes contain 3 records from the Yearbook Database; (vi) seeks information that is commercially sensitive,
4 confidential, proprietary and/or reflective of trade secrets, including, but not limited to, Ancestry’s 5 commercially sensitive, confidential and proprietary information; and (vi) seeks information that is 6 duplicative of other discovery, namely Request for Production 3.

7 Subject to and without waiving the foregoing general and specific objections and subject to the 8 protective order in this case, Ancestry responds as follows:

9 A user can only receive “hint” emails from Ancestry if they have signed up for an Ancestry 10 account and created a family tree on the Ancestry.com website. “Hint” emails are sent to users based 11 on the information about individuals an existing Ancestry user has added to his or her “family tree,” 12 which is a user-generated “tree” containing records the user has gathered about various persons, such 13 as the users themselves or their family members. “Hint” emails are only sent to users who have 14 already added the person whose record might be referenced in the “hint” email into the user’s “family 15 tree.” For example, according to Ancestry’s records, none of the yearbook records for Mark Sessa or 16 Anthony Sessa at issue in this action have been the subject of any hint e-mails. Hint emails might 17 sometimes relate to records from the Yearbook Database. Such emails say “we combed through our 18 vast digital resources to find an Ancestry Hint that might help you make more discoveries in [user’s] 19 Family Tree.” Hint emails are limited by and reflective of user-inputted information. For example, 20 hint messages contain the name of a person listed in the user’s family tree, as it appears in the family 21 tree. If a user listed the full name (first, middle, and last name) of a relative, the hint email will 22 contain the full name too. But if a user listed only the first name and an initial, then the name in the 23 hint email will also appear in that manner. Similarly, the hint email might contain the years or dates 24 of birth and death of a person listed in the family tree, if that information was provided by the user in 25 his or her family tree. Hint emails also contain the name of the database in which the hinted record is 26 located, for example, the “U.S. School Yearbooks, 1900-2016” database. Finally, the hint emails 27 contain a button that says “See your hint.” Hint e-mails regarding yearbook records do not contain 28

1 any photographs. Nor do they contain any other information about the record itself. The purpose of 2 sending these “hint” emails is to assist users with their genealogical research by providing records that 3 might relate to the user-inputted information that the user has inserted in his or her “family tree.”

4 Ancestry’s purpose in providing a user with search results corresponding to the user’s query 5 for yearbook records is to inform the user of the availability of records in its yearbook database that 6 might match the user’s search criteria. Ancestry’s purpose in allowing a user to preview the yearbook 7 records in the search results list is to inform the user of the general categories of information that 8 might be available for the records the user has chosen to search. Ancestry’s purpose in allowing 9 subscribers and free trial users to search and access records is to aid users in discovering information 10 that might be relevant to their genealogical research or that might otherwise be of interest to them.
11 Depending on the actions a user takes on Ancestry’s website, Ancestry might also provide the user 12 with a link to its membership options page to inform the user of which records are accessible and the 13 available membership options.

14 INTERROGATORY NO. 3:

15 Identify and describe the process by which Ancestry obtains written consent as required by 16 NRS 597.790(2) from Plaintiffs or any members of the Class for the use of their Yearbook
17 Photographs, Yearbook Names, and/or personal information in On-Site Messages or Marketing 18 Emails.

19 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 3:

20 Ancestry incorporates its general objections and in addition objects to this Interrogatory on the 21 grounds that it: (i) seeks information protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the 22 work-product doctrine, the common interest privilege, or other applicable protection; (ii) is overly 23 broad and unduly burdensome, including to the extent it seeks information that is neither relevant to 24 the claims or defenses of any party nor proportional to the needs of the case, including by seeking 25 information without any appropriate temporal or geographic limitations; (iii) is overbroad, unduly 26 burdensome, and vague with respect to what constitutes “personal information,” which Ancestry 27 assumes to be information associated with the yearbook records at issue in this case; (iv) is vague as to 28

1 who is a putative Class member, including because Ancestry is unable to determine with the 2 information available to it who is a member of the putative “class”; (v) is overbroad, unduly 3 burdensome, and vague with respect to what constitutes “on-site messages” including in its attempt to 4 stretch the well-known meaning of “message” to cover anything that might appear on a website; 5 Ancestry will interpret “on-site messages” to mean the various landing pages and previews that can be 6 accessed after searching for a yearbook record; (vi) is overbroad, unduly burdensome, and vague with 7 respect to what constitutes a “marketing email”; Ancestry does not use records from its Yearbook
8 Database in any “marketing emails,” and thus interprets this to mean “hint” emails, which do 9 sometimes contain records from the Yearbook Database; (vii) seeks information that is commercially 10 sensitive, confidential, proprietary and/or reflective of trade secrets, including, but not limited to, 11 Ancestry’s commercially sensitive, confidential and proprietary information; (viii) seeks a legal 12 conclusion; and (ix) seeks information that is duplicative of other discovery, namely Request for 13 Production 6.

14 Subject to and without waiving the foregoing general and specific objections, Ancestry 15 responds as follows: Ancestry users provide consent by donating a yearbook or agreeing to 16 Ancestry’s Terms and Conditions. In addition, plaintiffs and putative class members could consent to 17 Ancestry’s Terms and Conditions via an agent or other third party—for example through an attorney’s 18 agreement to Ancestry’s Terms and Conditions in signing up for Ancestry’s services. Further, 19 plaintiffs and the putative class members could consent by providing consent to a third party who, in 20 turn, provided consent to Ancestry.

21 INTERROGATORY NO. 4:

22 Identify the revenue derived from website subscriptions in each fiscal quarter since Ancestry 23 began including access to the Yearbook Database as part of its subscription products.

24 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 4:

25 Ancestry incorporates its general objections and in addition objects to this Interrogatory on the 26 grounds that it: (i) is overbroad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case; (ii) 27 seeks information that is neither relevant to the claims or defenses of any party nor the available 28

1 remedies—not only is Ancestry’s revenue irrelevant to plaintiffs’ claim or any purported damages, but 2 this Interrogatory asks for information entirely unrelated to the yearbook information underlying 3 plaintiffs’ claim; (iii) is overly broad and unduly burdensome to the extent it seeks information 4 without any appropriate temporal or geographic limitations; (iv) seeks information that is 5 commercially sensitive, confidential, or proprietary; (v) seeks information that is duplicative of other 6 discovery, namely Request for Production 2 and Interrogatory 5; and (vi) impermissibly and 7 prematurely calls for expert opinions or testimony, at odds with the requirements of Rule 26(a)(2)(D) 8 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure—Ancestry will make its expert disclosures in compliance with 9 the timeframe provided by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

10 Subject to and without waiving the foregoing general and specific objections, Ancestry 11 responds as follows: Ancestry will not identify the revenue derived before December 2016 from any 12 website subscriptions. From December 2016 to September 2022 the total revenue that Ancestry has 13 received from subscriptions that include but are not limited to providing access to the Yearbook 14 Database is $4,300,426,840 as further detailed below:

INTERROGATORY NO. 5:

Identify the revenue derived from website subscriptions for all accounts for which the subscriber accessed, viewed, or requested a Yearbook Name or Yearbook Photograph from a school in Nevada prior to purchasing a subscription.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 5:

Ancestry incorporates its general objections and in addition objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it: (i) is overbroad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case; (ii) seeks information that is neither relevant to the claims or defenses of any party nor the available remedies—not only is Ancestry’s revenue irrelevant to plaintiffs’ claim or any purported damages, but this Interrogatory asks for information entirely unrelated to the yearbook information underlying plaintiffs’ claim; (iii) is overly broad and unduly burdensome to the extent it seeks information without any appropriate temporal or geographic limitations; (iv) seeks information that is commercially sensitive, confidential, or proprietary; (v) seeks information that is duplicative of other discovery, namely Request for Production 2 and Interrogatory 4; and (vi) impermissibly and prematurely calls for expert opinions or testimony, at odds with the requirements of Rule 26(a)(2)(D) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure—Ancestry will make its expert disclosures in compliance with the timeframe provided by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Consistent with the above objections, Ancestry does not intend to respond to this Interrogatory. Ancestry is unable to determine what prompted any user to purchase an Ancestry.com subscription. Ancestry is also unable to tie any subscription back to anyone having viewed a specific record. Thus, Ancestry cannot determine the amount of revenue, if any, derived from a subscription that was purchased after a user engaged with a Nevada yearbook record. Although Ancestry can tell whether particular records were accessed, and Ancestry does track subscription purchases, Ancestry does not track which records were viewed and whether the user who viewed those records then went on to

1 purchase a subscription. Determining whether a subscription was purchased after accessing a 2 particular record would be an unduly burdensome, expensive, time-consuming, and sometimes 3 impossible task to take on for each of the 2,654,270 Nevada yearbook records. It would require 4 Ancestry to track down whether each of those millions of records were accessed and to separately 5 attempt to determine whether the user who accessed that record went on to purchase a subscription.
6 Making that determination might not always be possible because of the limited information Ancestry 7 has and whether a user was using an Ancestry account or not. Additionally, this Interrogatory does 8 not does not consider whether other, non-yearbook records were also viewed prior to a subscription 9 purchase, the length of time between the viewing of a particular record and the subscription purchase, 10 or other factors that more likely led to a subscription purchase than the viewing of a single yearbook 11 record. This is an extremely individualized inquiry that is not proportional to the needs of the case.

12 INTERROGATORY NO. 6:

13 Identify, for each yearbook from a school in Nevada in the Yearbook Database, the amount 14 and frequency of licensing fees Ancestry paid to PeopleConnect or any other party for access to the 15 yearbook, and the number of Yearbook Names in the yearbook.

16 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 6:

17 Ancestry incorporates its general objections and in addition objects to this Interrogatory on the 18 grounds that it: (i) is overbroad and unduly burdensome and is not proportional to the needs of this 19 case to the extent it calls for identification of amount of fees paid per Nevada yearbook where the 20 licensing agreements and fees cover multiple yearbooks, often from various states other than Nevada, 21 (ii) is overbroad and unduly burdensome and is not proportional to the needs of this case to the extent 22 it calls for identification of the number of yearbook names in the yearbook when that is not something 23 Ancestry tracks in its ordinary course of business and it would require Ancestry to undertake the 24 unnecessary burden and expense of reviewing each Nevada yearbook covered by the licensing 25 agreements to determine the number of yearbook names that appear in each, including having to 26 manually account for multiple appearances of the same names to determine whether they pertain to the 27 same or different individuals, which might not always be possible to the extent the appearance of the 28

1 name is not accompanied by other information necessary to correspond with the appearance of the 2 same name elsewhere in the yearbook; (iii) is overbroad and unduly burdensome and is not 3 proportional to the needs of this case to the extent it calls for identification of this information without 4 any appropriate temporal scope, (iv) seeks information that is duplicative of other discovery, namely 5 Interrogatory 1 and Request for Production 1; (v) seeks information outside of the possession, 6 custody, or control of Ancestry to the extent the information is not known to Ancestry; (vi) is 7 premature given that Ancestry has not yet completed its investigation; (vii) seeks documents that are 8 irrelevant to the claims or defenses of any party, including because this issue has no bearing on 9 plaintiffs' claim; (viii) seeks information that is commercially sensitive, confidential, proprietary 10 and/or reflective of trade secrets, including, but not limited to, Ancestry's commercially sensitive, 11 confidential and proprietary information and information that is prohibited from disclosure by 12 contract, agreement, understanding, custom, trade usage, statute, regulation, privacy law and/or any 13 other provision of law; and (ix) seeks information that, if disclosed, would violate third-party privacy 14 rights or third-party confidentiality rights (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) or any 15 rights that prohibit Ancestry from disclosing third-party information without consent.

7 INTERROGATORY NO. 7:

8 Provide the name, last known address, and last known telephone number of each individual 9 likely to have discoverable information concerning the allegations of the Complaint, along with a brief 10 description of the information.

11 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 7:

12 Ancestry incorporates its general objections and in addition objects to this Interrogatory on the 13 grounds that it: (i) is overbroad and unduly burdensome to the extent it calls for identification of every 14 individual “likely to have discoverable information concerning the allegations of the Complaint,” 15 without specifying the allegations at issue (many of which alleged facts about actions of people other 16 than Ancestry), and without regard to the needs of this case or whether such individuals are or were 17 Ancestry employees, as such a request could encompass, for example, every putative class member; 18 (ii) seeks information that is as accessible to plaintiff as it is to Ancestry, such that it is unreasonably 19 burdensome to compel Ancestry to obtain such information for plaintiff; (iii) seeks information that is 20 duplicative of other discovery; (iv) seeks information outside of the possession, custody, or control of 21 Ancestry to the extent that information is not known to Ancestry; and (v) is premature given that 22 Ancestry has not yet completed its investigation.

23 Subject to and without waiving the foregoing general and specific objections and subject to the 24 protective order in this action, Ancestry identifies the following individuals who Ancestry believes are 25 likely to have non-duplicative, discoverable information that Ancestry might use, except solely for 26 impeachment, to support its defenses:

27
28

Name and Job Title	Contact Information	Subject(s) of Information
Todd Godfrey, Vice President, Global Content	May be reached through counsel for Ancestry Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP 865 S. Figueroa Street, 10th Floor Los Angeles, CA 90017 (213) 443-3000	The factual allegations in the complaint; purported acts and/or omissions by Ancestry; Ancestry's acquisition of plaintiff's yearbooks; access to plaintiff's yearbook information through Ancestry's website; any e-mail alerts Ancestry sent that include plaintiff's yearbook information; and any affirmative defenses asserted by Ancestry.
Quinton Atkinson, Senior Director Global Content Acquisition	May be reached through counsel for Ancestry Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP 865 S. Figueroa Street, 10th Floor Los Angeles, CA 90017 (213) 443-3000	Yearbook acquisition agreements.

Ancestry's investigation of plaintiffs' claims and Ancestry's defenses is continuing, Ancestry reserves the right to amend and/or supplement this response as additional information becomes known.

INTERROGATORY NO. 8:

State the number of Yearbook Names in the Yearbook Database from schools in Nevada.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 8:

Ancestry incorporates its general objections and in addition objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it: (i) is overbroad, unduly burdensome and is not proportional to the needs of this case—the number of individuals who attended schools in Nevada and have at least some yearbook information in the database is not something that Ancestry tracks in its ordinary course of business—this would require Ancestry to undertake the unnecessary burden and expense of reviewing each

1 Nevada yearbook to determine the number of yearbook names that appear in each, including having to 2 manually account for multiple appearances of the same names to determine whether they pertain to the 3 same or different individuals, which might not always be possible to the extent the appearance of the 4 name is not accompanied by other information necessary to correspond with the appearance of the 5 same name elsewhere in the yearbook; (ii) seeks information that is duplicative of other discovery, 6 namely Interrogatory 6 and 9; (iii) seeks information outside of the possession, custody, or control of 7 Ancestry to the extent that information is not known to Ancestry; (iv) is premature given that Ancestry 8 has not yet completed its investigation; and (v) seeks documents that are irrelevant to the claims or 9 defenses of any party, including because this issue has no bearing on whether plaintiffs have a viable 10 claim.

11 Subject to and without waiving the foregoing general and specific objections and subject to the 12 protective order in this case, Ancestry responds as follows: Ancestry cannot identify the number of 13 individuals in the Yearbook Database who appear in at least one of the Nevada yearbooks contained in 14 that database. Ancestry can identify neither the number of individuals who have yearbook records
15 from Nevada in the database nor the number of Nevada residents whose yearbook records are in the 16 database. Ancestry lacks the information necessary to identify those numbers because Ancestry does 17 not track this information in its ordinary course of business and it is not something that Ancestry can 18 obtain. Identifying that information would require Ancestry to undertake the impossible task, and 19 unnecessary burden and expense, of reviewing all Nevada yearbooks within its Yearbook Database, 20 each of which contain many names, to determine the exact number of yearbook names that appear in 21 each, including having to manually account for multiple appearances of the same names to determine 22 whether they pertain to the same or different individuals, which might not always be possible to the 23 extent the appearance of the name is not accompanied by other information necessary to correspond 24 with the appearance of the same name elsewhere in that same yearbook or other yearbooks from that 25 same school or other schools (in different years). This would also require comparison across different
26 yearbooks to determine whether the same name pertains to one or multiple individuals, and Ancestry
27 does not have sufficient information that would enable it to undertake this process. Thus, Ancestry 28

1 lacks the knowledge and information necessary to identify the number of individuals that appear in
2 Nevada yearbook records.

3 Ancestry instead states that the number of searchable yearbook records corresponding to 4 schools in Nevada as of October 24, 2022, is 2,654,270

5 INTERROGATORY NO. 9:

6 State whether Ancestry is able to identify individuals in the Yearbook Database that appear in 7 yearbooks from Nevada and, if yes, describe the process for doing so and identify the total number of 8 individuals, and if no, explain why.

9 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 9:

10 Ancestry incorporates its general objections and in addition objects to this Interrogatory on the 11 grounds that it: (i) seeks information that is duplicative of other discovery, namely Interrogatory 6 and 12 8; (ii) seeks information outside of the possession, custody, or control of Ancestry to the extent that 13 information is not known to Ancestry; (iii) is premature given that Ancestry has not yet completed its 14 investigation; and (iv) seeks documents that are irrelevant to the claims or defenses of any party, 15 including because this issue has no bearing on whether plaintiff has a viable claim.

16 Subject to and without waiving the foregoing general and specific objections and subject to the 17 protective order in this action, Ancestry responds as follows: Ancestry cannot identify the number of 18 individuals in the Yearbook Database who appear in at least one of the Nevada yearbooks contained in 19 that database. Ancestry can identify neither the number of individuals who have yearbook records
20 from Nevada in the database nor the number of Nevada residents whose yearbook records are in the 21 database. Ancestry lacks the information necessary to identify those numbers because Ancestry does
22 not track this information in its ordinary course of business and it is not something that Ancestry can 23 obtain. Identifying that information would require Ancestry to undertake the impossible task, and 24 unnecessary burden and expense of reviewing all Nevada yearbooks within its Yearbook Database, 25 each of which contain many names to determine the exact number of yearbook names that appear in 26 each, including having to manually account for multiple appearances of the same names to determine 27 whether they pertain to the same or different individuals, which might not always be possible to the 28

1 extent the appearance of the name is not accompanied by other information necessary to correspond
2 with the appearance of the same name elsewhere in that same yearbook or other yearbooks from that
3 same school or other schools (in different years). This would also require comparison across different
4 yearbooks to determine whether the same name pertains to one or multiple individuals, and Ancestry
5 does not have sufficient information that would enable it to undertake this process. Thus, Ancestry
6 lacks the knowledge and information necessary to identify the number of individuals that appear in 7 Nevada yearbook records.

8 INTERROGATORY NO. 10:

9
10 State whether Ancestry is able to identify Subscribers that identify themselves as having a 11 Nevada address for billing or residence purposes and, if yes, describe the process for doing so and 12 identify the total number of individuals, and if no, explain why.

13 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 10:

14 Ancestry incorporates its general objections and in addition objects to this Interrogatory on the 15 grounds that it: (i) is vague and ambiguous as to who is a “Subscriber,” which Ancestry interprets as 16 free trial, paying, and registered users of www.ancestry.com; and (ii) seeks documents that contain 17 information that is commercially sensitive, confidential, proprietary and/or reflective of trade secrets, 18 including, but not limited to, Ancestry’s commercially sensitive, confidential and proprietary 19 information and information that is prohibited from disclosure by contract, agreement, understanding, 20 custom, trade usage, statute, regulation, privacy law and/or any other provision of law. Subject to and 21 without waiving the foregoing general and specific objections and subject to the protective order in 22 this action, Ancestry states that Ancestry is able to identify only its paying subscribers who have 23 provided Ancestry with a Nevada billing address. To determine the total number of Ancestry paying 24 subscribers whose accounts are associated with a Nevada billing address, Ancestry filters the 25 aggregate paying subscriber data to include only those whose current billing address is in Nevada. As 26 of June 3, 2022, there were 24,738 Ancestry paying subscribers associated with a Nevada billing 27 address. And as of October 25, 2022, there were 192,433 free trial users who had self-reported an 28

1 association with a Nevada address. Ancestry lacks information sufficient to identify its registrants and 2 users who have Nevada addresses. Ancestry lacks information sufficient to determine whether its 3 paying subscribers, free trial subscribers, registrants, and users are Nevada residents. Registrants only 4 provide a name and email. Ancestry makes no representation as to whether the free trial registrants 5 who provided those Nevada codes to Ancestry upon registering are or ever were Nevada residents.

6 INTERROGATORY NO. 11:

7 Identify and describe any policy, practice, or procedure by which Ancestry responds to 8 requests to remove Yearbook Names or Yearbook Photographs from www.ancestry.com.

9 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 11:

10 Ancestry incorporates its general objections and in addition objects to this Interrogatory on the 11 grounds that it is overbroad and unduly burdensome and is not proportional to the needs of this case to 12 the extent it calls for information that is irrelevant to the claims and defenses in this litigation, 13 including because plaintiff has not alleged to have requested his yearbook information be removed 14 from Ancestry's website. In addition, it is not limited to an appropriate temporal or geographic scope.

15 Subject to each of the foregoing general and specific objections, Ancestry provides the 16 following response: Removal requests can be made via Ancestry's website or by calling Ancestry's 17 customer service. Ancestry will remove a yearbook record from its database if the person requesting 18 removal can provide Ancestry with sufficient information to identify the record at issue and the record 19 contains information regarding (a) the person requesting removal; (b) that person's living, minor 20 child; or (c) the requesting person's spouse.

21 INTERROGATORY NO. 12:

22 Identify all yearbooks in the Yearbook Database from schools in Nevada and the date on 23 which each such yearbook was added to the Yearbook Database. Yearbooks should be identified by at 24 least the following information: name of school; location of school within Nevada (city and county); 25 year of yearbook publication; and date (day, month, and year) on which the yearbook was added to the 26 Yearbook Database.

1 RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 12:

2 Ancestry incorporates its general objections and in addition objects to this Interrogatory on the 3 grounds that it: (i) is overly broad and unduly burdensome, including to the extent it seeks 4 information that is neither relevant to the claims or defenses of any party nor proportional to the needs 5 of the case, including because it is not limited to an appropriate temporal scope; (ii) is duplicative of 6 other discovery in this action; and (iii) seeks information that is outside of Ancestry's possession, 7 custody, or control, to the extent this information is not known or not capable of being accurately 8 determined without undue burden and expense.

9 The below table lists the name of the school, year the yearbook was published, and school city
10 for each Nevada yearbook in Ancestry's Yearbook Database. It does not list the county of the school
11 because that is not something Ancestry tracks and it is something that is as accessible to plaintiffs as it 12 is to Ancestry, so it would be unduly burdensome for Ancestry to take on the burden and expense of 13 determining that irrelevant information for each yearbook within the database.

14 In addition, Ancestry objects to providing the yearbook upload date of each Nevada yearbook.
15 Ancestry does not track yearbook record launches at the individual yearbook or yearbook record level, 16 but rather tracks them at a "collection" level instead. So identifying the publication date for a given 17 yearbook or yearbook record requires Ancestry to link that record back to a "collection" and 18 determine the date the collection was uploaded or last updated. For some yearbooks and yearbook 19 records, this information is more readily available than it is for others, depending on the collection the 20 record or yearbook is a part of. While Ancestry might be able to identify dates when yearbook 21 collections were updated, it might not be able to determine what new uploads were contained in each 22 of those updates. The yearbooks collection has been updated several times since its original release in 23 2010. The earlier releases were completed using multiple toolsets and processes that have been 24 replaced and are no longer supported. Although some of the underlying information is still available, 25 it would require significant manual work to review what data is still available and attempt to 26 determine individual yearbook or record upload dates. In addition, this might not always be possible.
27 There are backups of yearbook collection launches that would need to be restored and meticulously 28

1 reviewed to attempt to match a yearbook or yearbook record with any specific launch. Even then, not 2 every launch has a backup, so not all the launch information can be restored and reviewed. Moreover, 3 some yearbooks were released in phases. Sometimes, yearbook records within the same yearbook 4 were released in various launches and it could be impossible to fully track and report which records
5 were released in which launch. And certain yearbooks were reprocessed under different identifiers.
6 Determining the yearbook upload date for each yearbook or yearbook record from Nevada would 7 require extensive manual review, and in some cases, it will be impossible to fully track down because 8 that data might not be available.
